Brochure

WELCOME

On behalf of the Indian Society of Gastroenterology and the World Gastroenterology Organisation, it gives us immense pleasure to welcome you all to the World Congress of Gastroenterology (WCOG 2026) – a landmark event being held for the very first time in India, in the vibrant national capital, New Delhi.

India has emerged as a significant contributor to global gastrointestinal research, with a growing focus on diseases highly relevant to both local and international populations. Premier medical institutions and research organisations in India have played pivotal roles in developing national and international guidelines, advancing epidemiological surveillance, and fostering translational research.

Jointly hosted by the Indian Society of Gastroenterology (ISG) and the World Gastroenterology Organisation (WGO) in collaboration with the Indian National Association for Study of the Liver (INASL), Crohn's and Colitis Foundation India (CCFI), Indian Pancreas Club (IPC) and Indian Neurogastroenterology and Motility Association (INMA); WCOG 2026 promises to be a unique convergence of minds from across the globe – gastroenterologists, hepatologists, pancreatologists, endoscopists, gastrointestinal surgeons, and dieticians, nurses, technologists and other healthcare professionals deeply invested in advancing care in our field.

Our theme, "Transforming Gastrointestinal Health, Preserving Nature", reflects not just a scientific pursuit but a commitment to the larger well-being of our planet. Expect a dynamic blend of cutting-edge research, meaningful discussions, and the kind of cross-disciplinary exchange that will shape the future of medicine.

We are delighted to share this journey with leaders from across the global gastroenterology community, alongside enthusiastic participation from industry partners, who bring innovations to the forefront of practice.

And while the Congress will be rich in science, we encourage you to soak in the cultural vibrancy of New Delhi – a city that is as historic as it is modern, as spiritual as it is spirited. From its legendary food and heritage sites to its bustling bazaars (markets) and eclectic nightlife, New Delhi is sure to be an experience in itself. And, if you have a little more time, you should also take in some of the iconic nearby attractions such as Agra and the Taj Mahal and the wonders of Rajasthan.

We look forward to your active participation, your invaluable support, and above all, to making WCOG 2026 a memorable milestone in every sense – scientifically, socially, and culturally.

See you in New Delhi!
